lexington, massachusetts

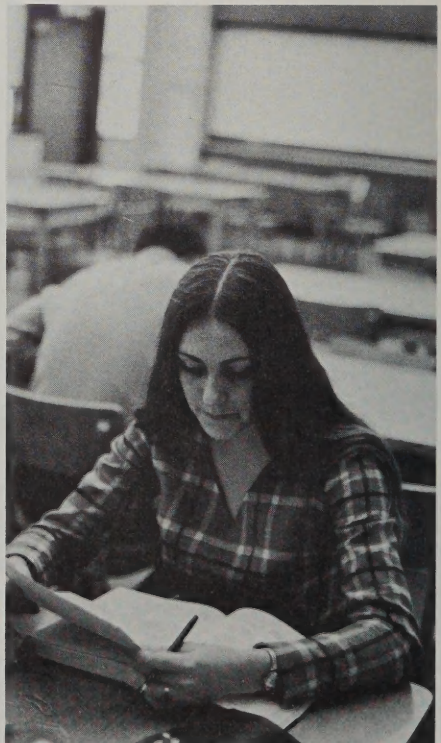

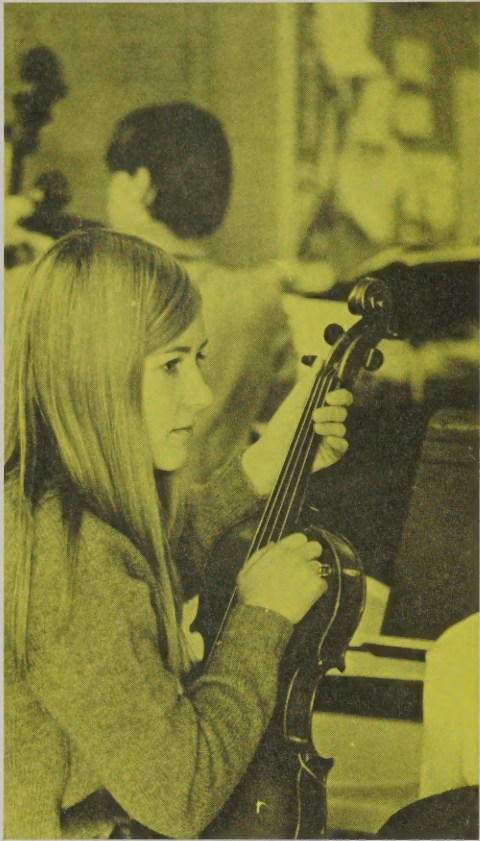

cover drawing by Dennis Morse, 1970.

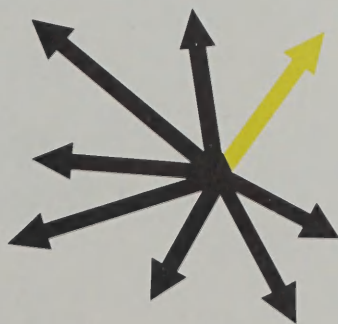

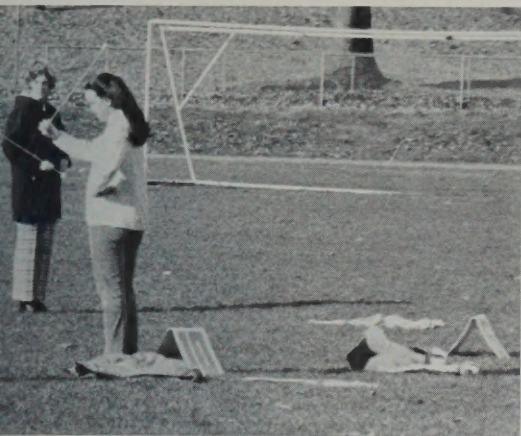

We all share a common experience.
Going to Lexington High binds us as one,
forming the basis upon which we
develop individual ideas, interests, and goals. The directions we choose are different, we are individuals.
But, the nature of what we do is the same. We accept challenges, we find escape, we seek to learn,
we become involved.

ORCHESTRA

Orchestra—The Greater Lexington High School wind ensemble, plus strings, started the year off with a bang: two “show-off” concerts to Muzzey and Diamond. What could have turned off those poor junior high kids more than hearing us play? But heedless of our warnings, Mr. Eleftherakis worked the poor violinists in back of the virtuoso seconds into shape for a brilliant Messiah concert in December. Thank goodness the chorus drowned us out. And despite the perfect pitch of the omnipotent oboes, Mr. Didomenico (the headstrong) took over and rehearsed us into a very good concert in February. Actually, we only seemed good because the combined Jr. High Orchestras played before us. The stern discipline of our fearless Concert mistress was admirable—but everybody worked hard and had fun!

Tom Jones ... Who's going to Friendly's?! ... "How can you be sexy and eat M & M's?" ... "I've come to inquire about Quire Allworthy" ... "I'll have no bawling in MY house!" ... "Blifil ... ah son in law ... Blifil!!?" ... Eddie ... Queer Duck ... Mike ... bucolic clod ... that last week ... the pep talk, Sophia's ankle, a certain trip to Mr. Johnson's office Friday morning ... dress rehearsal without the lead? ... The true patience of a director and good guy resulting in—Tom Jones, a smashing success.

PUBLIC AFFAIRS CLUB

The Public Affairs Club is constantly struggling to provide students with information on, and involvement in the issues of today—Vietnam, the Draft, S.D.S., Foreign Aid, Pollution, Biafra, and more.

We are the Lexington chapter of the M.J.W.A.C.—(the Massachusetts Junior World Affairs Council, of course!). The before school 'wake up' newspaper beat in front of the main office—"Herald or Globe! . . . Free for a dime!" The customer is always right . . . even if he doesn't want to buy a paper?! Plans, Programs, and Publicity—the three P's that run the P.A.C. Occasionally, add a U.C. for utter chaos!

CROSS COUNTRY

The Cross Country season was very successful. Placing second in the Middlesex League, the team compiled a record of eight wins and one loss.

Lexington placed fourth in the State Meet, Division 1, and second in the League Meet.

For the first time in Lexington history, three LHS runners broke the fourteen minute mark and the old school record of 14:07. The record is now held by Steve Mabee at 13:47.

FIELD HOCKEY

KNEELING: Stephanie Colony, Jane Gallagher, Mary Ellen Martin, Captain; Joan Cormier, Marge Hayner. ROW TWO: Coach Levitt, Kathy Wolfe, Barbara Terkanian, Alice Hayner, Marilyn Meadows, Donna Marshall, Joyce Silva, Cindy Casey.

Dribble, dribble, drive! Rush it! Follow up! Teamwork and Let's go! were just a few of the words ringing the girls' ears during every game. Outstanding skills, good sportsmanship and the will to win, combined with Miss Leavitt's coaching, helped to make this season a good one. Though the season began slowly for the team, they ended in glorious victories. When the team clicked, they were unbeatable. The clash of sticks, falls, and injuries, the boisterous bus rides, and the stampede for refreshments after the game won't be forgotten.

THANKSGIVING 1969

How it all began.

The need for a win ... Only three days preparation ... Spirit high ... Beautiful day ... Senior's last chance ... Concord wins the toss ... Defense holds ... Offense explodes for TD on first play! Big D gets ball ... O drives for score ... Looks good ... Second Quarter (forget it!) ... Halftime corrections ... Turkey joins the team ... Team comes back strong after half ... Don't quite make it ... Time running out ... Defense forces Concord to punt ... Great blocks and return goes all the way ... FG—icing on the cake ... The Musket is ours!!

First play from scrimmage?

"Are you baggin' me?"

How it all ended!

The Girls' Varsity Basketball team continued its undefeated ways for a second straight season. Leading the scoring was captain Mary Ellen Martin, while the defense was led by veterans Mary Murphy and Lois Willoughby. Sue D'Entremont was a strong asset as a play maker on offense and constant harasser on defense. The seniors had more than adequate help from the five juniors and one sophomore who completed the team roster. With six returning letter winners and several promising J.V. players ready to fill the senior vacancies, the team can look forward to another fine season next year.

VARSITY CLUB

The Varsity Club was an attempt to transform the athletic fields from a battlefield to a social and competitive meeting place of at-e-letes. Plagued by apathy, previous debts, and sporadic meeting attendances, they weren't quite able to fulfill all of their goals. The Pancake Brunch was only a mild success, since it also serviced the football scoreboard and the Middlesex League Champion Soccer team's jackets (??). Champion sportswear sales have just begun and the sports wear fever is anticipated to shortly captivate the school. Little can one appreciate the great pains taken to attract such male and female faculty superstars for the student-faculty basketball game. The sales of the sports magazine, although yet to surpass Time and Life, are expected to boom. With sixteen returning lettermen, the future of this fine, upstanding, and, needless to say worthwhile organization, looks bright.

SOS

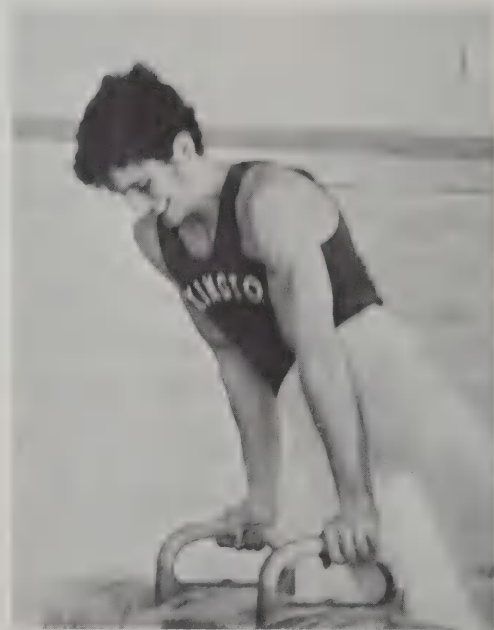

Students' Own Service is a volunteer organization based on the principle that students are very effective in dealing with other students' problems. SOS's main task is to provide tutors for students within the high school, in any area. S.O.S. also offers tutors to all of the elementary schools in Lexington. In addition, S.O.S. has provided such services as clerical assistance and remedial reading, while some SOS members have worked with the mentally retarded and emotionally disturbed. Hopefully, S.O.S. will become a permanent program at L.H.S.

a completely unique experience

It is the special directions we take that make our school unique. Lexington High is not necessarily better, nor worse than most other schools; but it is DIFFERENT—different because of the particular things we choose to do.

In the following pages, we have attempted to illustrate how the students at Lexington High express themselves by becoming involved.

On October 15, thousands of students expressed their opposition to the war in Vietnam. Lexington was host to Governor Seargent, as well as many other distinguished speakers.

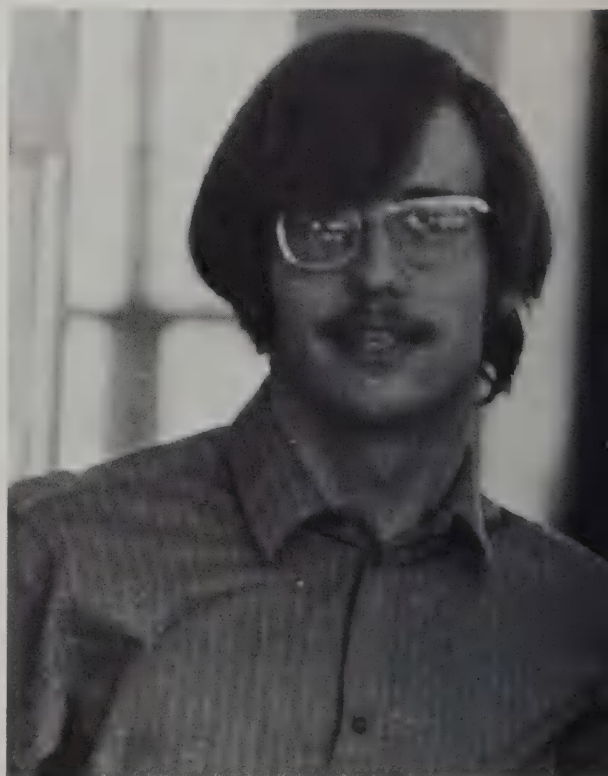

The increasing enrollment at L.H.S. necessitated a re-evaluation of the unit system. For this purpose, a committee of students and faculty was appointed, headed by Nate Todaro.

For two weeks in September, Ellen Degan and David Drake, visited our sister city of Dalores Hidalgo.

Lexington was host to two A.F.S. students: Saba Gessesse from Ethiopia, and Gino Gomba from Italy. In January, our A.F.S. representative, Jamie Katz, returned from his year in New Zealand.

This year, Lexington High participated in several cultural exchanges. In July, twenty-one L.H.S. students initiated an exchange with Pueblo, Mexico, when they spent a month living with Mexican families.

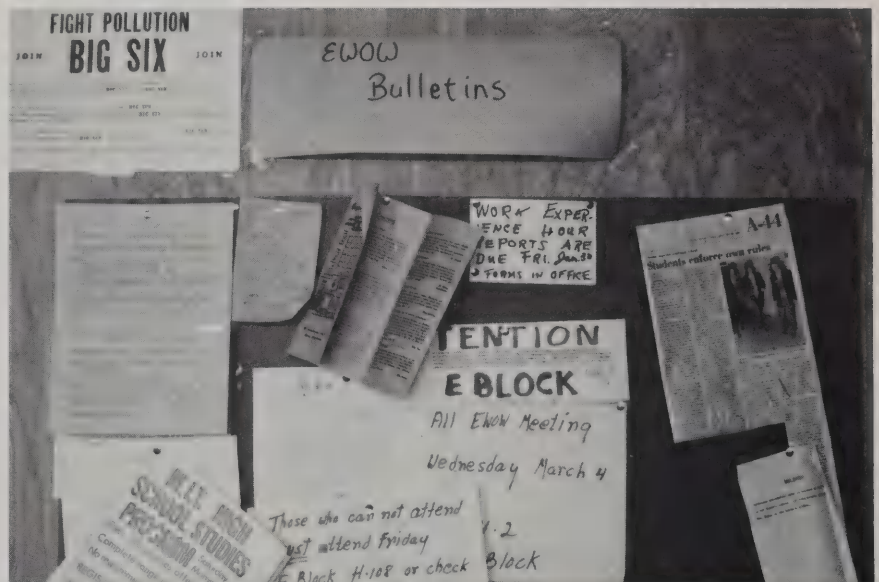

By student demand, Lexington High initiated a Black Studies Course to provide an opportunity for interested students to learn more about that area of our history.

In February, the black students presented a program to the school to express their attitude toward the black man's position and relationship to society.

Education Without Walls attempted to break away from traditional classroom education by bringing the student in closer contact with the community.

This year an attempt was made to better communication within the school. One such attempt was Mr. Johnson's Open Meetings, where students were free to question the Administration's policies in any area.

In March plans were being formulated for a day long Ecology Teach-In to take place in April.

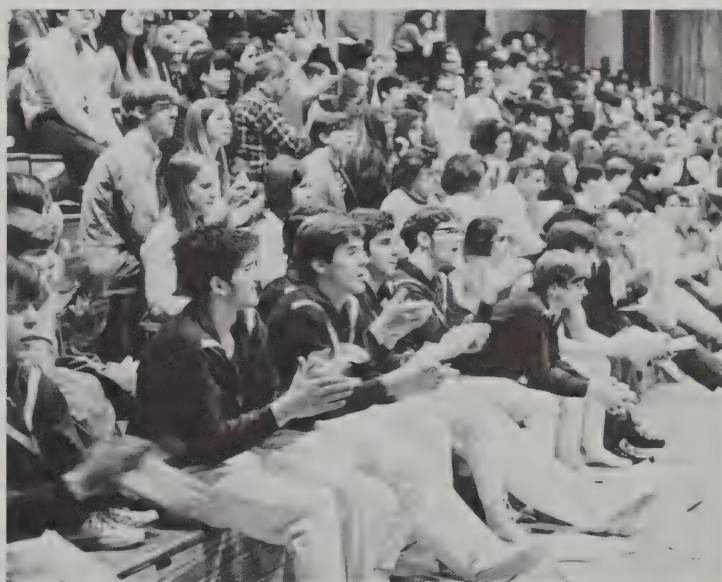

Lexington High's Winter sports teams did exceptionally well this year. The Indoor Track Team was Undefeated Middlesex League Champs and Number One in the State.

The Gymnastic Team placed Second in the States.

The Basketball Team were Middlesex League Champs and Tech Tourney Finalists.

In March, the Boy's and Girl's Gymnastic Teams combined their skills to present the "Joy of Effort", featuring different types of competitive skills, dance steps, tumbling, pyramids, triple balance, tableaux, and comedy.

In March, Lexington High participated in the drama segment of the Arts/Six Program. Miss Ella Gerber and four professional actors captivated hundreds of students for four weeks.

Rehearsals began in February for this year's musical Kiss Me Kate, to be presented in April.

This year the Junior Class produced their own play about life at Lexington High.

UNDERCLASSMEN

CLASS OF 1973

Freshmanitis ... the "first year in high school" syndrome. Symptoms: A Tale of Two Cities, trilobites, erosion, evapotranspiration, algebraic formulas, Alexander-the-Great and friends. A condition further aggravated by: something called a "source theme" and being the youngest of four classes. Diagnosis: Unity as a class while belonging to the whole.

CLASS OFFICERS—James McKinney, President; James LaFauci, Vice-President; Sandra McAluff, Secretary; Mary Jane Enterkin, Treasurer.

*Every year is its own;
a time of familiar things.*

But the familiar changing into the unknown is our future.

*Because of the directions
we have taken, because of what we have become,
we are ready to accept the challenge.*

This is the last page of Lexington 1970, and if it had not been for the efforts of a great many people we would never have gotten this far. Everyone who worked on the book deserves recognition, but there are a few people who deserve special thanks for their endless hours of work: Bob Kent, Van Harris, Geoff Freitas, Bruce Owens, and Bill Murray. We also appreciated the patience and reliability of Stuart's Photo-finishing Service of Arlington, and the Lexington Minuteman. It is impossible to imagine where we would be without the kind help of Roswell Farnham of the Wm. J. Keller Inc. Finally, this book is indebted to our Advisor, Neil Gray, for all his time and understanding. To all those involved in the creation of this book, thank you.

T.J.
